

MEMORANDUM FOR Food Program Manager

SUBJECT: Administrative Instructions for the 32nd Annual U.S. Army Culinary Arts Competition, Competition, 3 March thru 16 March 2007.

1. ANNOUNCEMENT: The 32nd Annual US Army Culinary Competition is scheduled to take place at Fort Lee, Virginia, 3 March - 16 March 2007. This memorandum, and attachments, contains all the rules and forms necessary for installations to register their intent to participate.

2. ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS: The annual US Army Culinary Arts Competition is sanctioned by the American Culinary Federation (ACF). The competition follows the rules and procedures set forth in the ACF Culinary Competition Manual, July 2002.

a. The ACF culinary rules manual provides detailed explanation of competition categories and judging procedures. In some instances the Army culinary competition categories are unique to the military. In these cases, competition rules were reviewed and approved by the ACF culinary guidelines committee. It is highly recommended that Team Managers and competitors use the ACF culinary guidelines manual as their guide for competing.

b. The download version of the manual is sent with this packet for your convenience. You may also contact Tracy Smith at the ACF – Telephone number 1 800 624-9458 or the ACF web page at www.acfchefs.org and retrieve more information. An automated MS Word version of the manual accompanies this packet.

c. The administrative instructions are split into annexes for ease of reading. Team managers should examine the documents to select competition categories.

d. Each annex contains its' respective forms which must be submitted to the Competition Project Officer no later than 2 February 2007. Submit your ration request for all events to SSG Brad Turner at brad.turner@us.army.mil no later than 2 February 2007.

INSTALLATION TEAM ENTRY AND ARRIVAL PROCEDURES

1. Installation Entry Form:

a. The installation entry form, at Annex B, Appendix 1, must be completed and forwarded by email to Fort Lee by 2 February 2007. The names of all team members must be listed on the entry form to receive participation credit for the competition.

b. Members may be substituted if they are unable to attend. Teams are made up of twelve (12) personnel including the Team Manager (non-competing), the Team Captain, seven members, and three apprentices. The "Team Manager" is overall responsible for the team. The apprentices are only eligible to compete in the culinary knowledge bowl and student skills competition.

c. Due to limited facilities and available time teams are limited to six individual entries in categories K and P (including the K & P for team entries). Teams may be doubled up in the kitchens if necessary, due to limited facilities. The competition is open to individuals and/or teams that are active duty Air Force, Army, Marine, Navy, National Guard, Army Reserve and DOD civilians.

d. Active Army teams are by Installation, National Guard is by state and Army Reserve is by region.

2. Arrival Procedures:

a. Competitors should arrange to arrive at Fort Lee, VA, no later than 2 March 2007.

b. Dress throughout the competitors' stay at Fort Lee will be food service whites and BDUs for the field phase of the competition. Team members may wear the white chef's jacket, white chef's toque, neckerchief, black or hounds tooth pattern pants and safety shoes (or low quarter shoes) if provided as the team uniform. Civilian Team Managers/Advisors may wear the full-length lab coat with nametag. All non-competing personnel will wear the appropriate military uniform IAW AR 670-1, Wear and Appearance of Army Uniforms and Insignia, during duty hours.

NOTE: Ball caps are not authorized during the competition. Teams should wear the white chef's toque/hat. Regardless of which uniform is worn, remember, you must always present a disciplined, military appearance. USACAT Members and apprentices need to bring their USACAT uniforms for official team functions, photographs, and trend update seminars.

3. Kitchen Work Areas:

a. Competitors should allow no less than 5 working days (including weekends) at Fort Lee prior to the competition for the production and touchup of their cold food entries. Competition staff will be assigning kitchen areas in building 4200 on 3 March 2007, immediately after Team Captains meeting. Labs are assigned according to when your packet arrives at Fort Lee. You may request a particular lab after your packet has been received.

(Annex A to Administrative Instructions for the 32nd Annual U.S. Army Culinary Arts Competition, Competition, 3 March – 16 March 2007.)

b. The assigned work areas must be hand-receipted by the Team Manager or Team Captain. Prior to releasing hand receipts at the end of the show, all kitchens must be properly cleaned, cleared, and returned to the competition staff before departure from this command. Cleaning supplies (detergent, brooms, mops, etc.) will be provided. Competition certificates (ACF) and certificates of participation will not be given to the teams prior to confirmation of this process.

c. A limited amount of food preparation equipment will be available in the assigned work areas. Specialized equipment needed for preparation and display of culinary entries must be provided by the installation. Only those items listed will be provided. (See equipment list of Annex A, Appendix 2).

d. Each year available space for the teams decreases because of the constant increase in the number of competitors. To help reduce the required space, Team Managers are encouraged to have centerpieces completed prior to arrival at Ft Lee.

4. Travel and Hotel Accommodations: Team Managers and/or individual competitors will make their own travel and hotel arrangements. Statements of non-availability (SNAs) will not be issued by Ft. Lee lodging. All team managers are required to call 1-800-GO-ARMY1 prior to making lodging arrangements. A list of hotels/motels is included in this packet. Teams should not plan to depart earlier than 16 March 2007, after 1300.

5. Official Phone Calls: Team Managers need to ensure that TDY orders authorize reimbursement of official phone calls. Telephone PIN codes will not be available for making long distance calls from Fort Lee military phones.

6. It is highly encouraged that the Team Manager or Team Captains TDY orders annotate and authorize money to purchase food, equipment, and supplies to support their team in preparation for the culinary competition. These average cost for a team is $800-$1200. Refrigeration in the kitchen classrooms is limited. Teams can rent additional refrigeration from local rental companies if necessary.

7. Rules and Procedures: All personnel are reminded that the Rules and Procedures issued for the 32nd Annual Army Culinary Competition will be STRICTLY ADHERED TO. All problems arising from the show should be directed to the respective NCOIC/POC. In reference to the judging of all categories, remember, “The Judge’s Decision is FINAL.” Team Managers should see CW4 Sparks if there is a question about your team entries immediately after the judging is finished.

8. OFF LIMITS: The following areas are “Off Limits” to ALL TEAMS unless specifically told otherwise:

a. AIT Students. ALL AIT STUDENTS are “Off Limits”. No team members are authorized to socialize or have another involvement with AIT students.

b. Fort Lee Field House. The Fort Lee Field House is “Off Limits” from 0630 to 1500 on Tuesday, 13 March 2007.

(Annex A to Administrative Instructions for the 32nd Annual U.S. Army Culinary Arts Competition, Competition, 3 March - 16 March 2007.)

c. Junior Chef and Chef of the Year Labs. The JCOY and COY Labs and outside corridors will be “Off Limits” for the duration of each competition to all personnel including Team Managers. Only competitors, show staff, and judges are allowed access.

d. Any violation of the “Off Limits” may result in a point deduction to the team entry or overall team point standings.

9. Telephones: Each Team has been allocated a Lab complete with telephones. Teams should inform their units of the respective contact numbers for all communication. Please DO NOT use Culinary Skills Training Division (CSTD) as a contact number, as messages received do not always get passed on to those concerned. The CSTD number should be left with your unit as an emergency contact number.

10. Parking. Vehicles are not authorized to be parked at the rear of building 4200. This is a “NO PARKING ZONE,” so please use the parking lots to the front of building 4200, excluding the reserved spaces. Teams traveling with large cargo trucks will stage them in a marked area at the rear of the front parking area. Do not park your vehicle on the grass for any reason.

11. Competitors Social: All personnel are encouraged to attend the social on Wednesday, 14 March 2007 from 1700-2200 hours. The cost is TBD and includes an all-you-can-eat buffet. Team Managers are to confirm total team members attending and purchase tickets by 1200 on Friday, 9 March 2007.

12. Photographs. Photographers will attend the Team Manager’s meeting to coordinate with Team Managers to photograph their team if desired. The photographs for Installation of the Year, Field, COY and JCOY winners will take place immediately after the Awards Ceremony at Mifflin Hall Auditorium on 16 March 2007 starting at approximately 1200 hrs. Team Managers should bring the appropriate photo equipment for all other requirements.

13. Ration Issues. Only Team Managers should approach the Rations NCO, concerning the issue of rations.

14. Static Exhibits. Static exhibits entered for the show WILL NOT be returned to individuals or teams on completion of the event. Privately owned trays, plates, etc can be collected after public viewing at 1700, 15 March 2007. Please do not attempt to remove or break down exhibits until this time.

15. Awards Ceremony. ALL team members are required to attend the awards ceremony 16 March 2007, at 1030, in Mifflin Hall Auditorium. Dress for the awardees will be Class A (service dress) uniform. The schedule for the ceremony will be as follows:

0830	All competitors to be seated.
0845	Practice Ceremony
	* All Awardees to attend.
	* Team Managers to check uniforms.
1030	Awards Ceremony

(Annex A to Administrative Instructions for the 32nd Annual U.S. Army Culinary Arts Competition, Competition, 3 March - 16 March 2007.)

16. United States Army Culinary Arts Team (USACAT) Selection Criteria. Team Managers must note on the installation entry form Annex B, Appendix 1, if a team member is trying out for USACAT.

- a. Because the USACAT competitive schedule is a two year cycle the members of USACAT will be assessed bi-annually (2005, 2007 etc). **There will be a scheduled tryout for this competition.****
- b. Candidates must possess a positive attitude toward the cooking profession and compete in tryouts to make the team. Live cooking competition scores weigh 100% of the grade for the tryout*. All tryouts/competitions are judged by ACF approved judges.
- c. Pastry – USACAT pastry candidates must enter the contemporary category F5.
- d. Cooking – USACAT cooking candidates must enter category F6.
- e. ALL – All candidates must take the written culinary exam on 4 March 07 in conjunction with the Culinary Knowledge Bowl exam.
- f. Personnel wishing to try out for USACAT must be annotated on the installation entry packet and comply with the required guidelines.

* Although live cooking provides 100% of the tryout grade, USACAT candidates will additionally be assessed on all aspects of their culinary performance throughout the competition (i.e. appearance, attitude, military bearing, static display, culinary knowledge and teamwork). The USACAT travels and interacts internationally, it is essential that members personify a “military and food service professional” at all times.

17. DESIGNATIONS OF USACAT MEMBERS:

- a. The USACAT is comprised of the following:

- (1) One (1) Manager
- (2) One (1) Assistant Manager or Military Advisor
- (3) One to three (1-3) Advisors/Coaches
- (4) One (1) Team Captain – Active Competitor
- (5) One (1) Pastry Chef – Active Competitor
- (6) Four (4) Chefs – Active Competitors
- (7) Six (6) Alternates/ Apprentice
- (8) Unlimited Inactive Members

b. The USACAT participates in a variety of culinary competitions throughout the year. Some active members may not be available for certain events because of the daily mission or for other unforeseen circumstances. In the event that an active member is unavailable a member from the alternate status may be placed on active status. The active member would then go to inactive status. Active members that due to deployments or unit mission are unable to complete the tryout will be placed on “in-active” status and may be placed in the appropriate team position based on USACAT requirements. This gives the manager the flexibility with the team to make the USACAT mission possible. The traveling / competing USACAT includes a total of 15 personnel; however, all 15 personnel may not travel on every USACAT event. Active members placed on inactive status may be placed back on active status within the same

(Annex A to Administrative Instructions for the 32nd Annual U.S. Army Culinary Arts Competition, Competition, 3 March - 16 March 2007.)

c. Active Competitor – These individuals are the most experienced competitors who have done extremely well in the tryouts and are the best qualified for the position they have been assigned. Therefore, they are placed in the primary six team-slots for international competition.

d. Apprentice/ Alternate Member – These members of the team have proven themselves in live cooking evaluations and work they have done on centerpieces. Competitors wishing to tryout as a USACAT apprentice must apprentice a USACAT (or alternate competitor if a USACAT candidate is unavailable) candidate during a live cooking event and take the culinary knowledge bowl exam on 4 Mar. This will provide the USACAT management with an assessment of the candidate's ability to apprentice during competitions. Team Managers should identify personnel that wish to be team apprentices so that they can be fairly assessed during the competition. The USACAT Team Manager reserves the right to place an Alternate/Apprentice Member in a Active Competitor position (Primary 6 slot) if necessary.

d. USACAT Members, Non Competitive – These team members encompass the team manager (This person is always the current Chief, Craft Skills Branch), team coaches and team advisors. The selections of these positions are based on experience, availability and team history.

e. Personnel wishing to hold a position on USACAT must agree to the following:

- Agree to complete the ACF judged cookery or pastry tryout.
- Agree to assist Ft. Lee as a team advisor during interim years.
- Must be a member of the United States Army or Army Reserve.
- Sign a letter of commitment to the team and the team's training schedule.
- Have a letter of recommendation and support from your command prior to tryout.
- Send a resume documenting your experience, education, awards, related activities etc.
- Committed to the Army for two years upon tryout.

NOTE: ACF Certification – All USACAT competitors are encouraged to process their chef certification packets through the ACF. Civilian certification is a quantifiable measurement of skill level, experience, and competence in our profession. Our ACF competition categories enable the competitors to gain valuable certification points. For information on certification call the ACF at 1-800-624-9458.

18. To the Competitors: Our annual competition continues to receive a great response from food service personnel around the world. The rules have been updated to coincide with the ACF guidelines. Enjoy the show this year and participate in as many of the live and publicly presented categories as your schedule allows. Bring your experiences back to your dining facility with you and tell everyone about it. Sharing what you have learned and implementing your skills in daily duties will encourage learning and inspire fellow cooks and chefs, motivate the staff, and improve quality food and customer service standards. Show your commitment to the cooking profession by demonstrating how the Army Culinary Program is worthwhile and meaningful. Stay on the team, share your knowledge, inspire your peers, and keep it alive.

2. Team Managers: In order to qualify for the "Installation of the Year," the Team Captain and seven Team Members must enter the cold food buffet. They will receive a total average score for all required entries on the table display. Additional centerpieces may also be entered, however, teams are discouraged from entering more categories than they can feasibly produce. Teams are reminded to focus on producing the high quality entries, which are required to qualify for Installation of the Year. Winning a Team Gold medal in the Static Buffet awards the team of eight with eight gold medals.

3. Take note that the Cold Food Buffet Table, (Static Display) required for Installation of the Year has changed. Details are included in this entry packet.

CONSOLIDATED SUBSISTENCE SUPPORT REQUEST

1. Each year the Ft. Lee rations competition staff is overwhelmed by problems resulting from teams over-ordering or poorly ordering rations resulting in huge excesses or "emergency" ration requisition. In an effort to fix this problem there have been SIGNIFICANT changes to the culinary show ration policy. Please read the following guidelines carefully, questions are encouraged and should be directed to the project officer.
2. Each competition team must submit two separate consolidated subsistence support request utilizing the forms provided. The first consolidated ration list, Annex C, Appendix 1 will be for the team's Category K & P, (live cooking). All K & P categories will be done in the first week of competition. The second consolidated ration list, Annex C, Appendix 2, will be for the cold food table, which will be displayed during the second week of competition. These consolidated list will be matched with the team's entries for accuracy (ex. If a team has 3 entries with beef tenderloin the total amount is entered in the requested amount and each name and category is listed that the item is to be used for). Follow the directions provided with the ration lists.
3. Each team will be required to have a designated ration person. This person will be annotated on the installation entry packet and will be the ONLY competitor allowed to request or receive rations.
4. Team Managers must submit the two completed consolidated ration requests Annex C, Appendix 1&2, no later than 2 February 2007. This requirement will enable the competition staff to have an overview of rations required for the show: however, team Captains will be required to submit updated ration requests by event based on the schedule listed below, failure to submit these ration requests will result in teams not receiving requested rations.

3 March 2007	Submit updated ration request for week 1 K&P category Annex C, Appendix 1. Turn in at Team Captains Meeting.
3 March 2007	Submit updated ration request for week 2 Cold Food Table Annex C, Appendix 1(NLT 1200).
5 March 2007	Receive week 1 K&P category rations (NLT 1200).
8 March 2007	Submit Nutritional Hot Food Challenge & Student Skills Ration request in format similar to Annex C, Appendix 1
10 March 2007	Receive week 2 rations seafood and produce
13 March 2007	Receive Nutritional Hot Food Challenge and Student Skills competition rations (NLT 1200)
5. All rations requested by competitors will be procured from Prime Vendor, Commissary or Ukrops (with the exception of those items listed in paragraph 5).

6. The following special order items and seafood will be available (please note that these are the ONLY items that will be ordered, any other special items or different seafood will be addressed on a case by case basis):

SPECIAL ITEMS	SEAFOOD

32nd ANNUAL US ARMY CULINARY COMPETITION RULES

1. This annex contains the rules for the 2007 competition. All Team Managers and competitors should be familiar with these rules. There are a few changes from last year's competition that supersede all other rules.
2. These rules are based on the guidelines established by the American Culinary Federation (ACF) with certain adjustments to facilitate a comprehensive Army competition. Using these rules and subsequent grading criteria ensures that all competitors are competing against the standard.
3. Competitors are reminded of the objectives of the US Army Culinary Competition as outlined in AR 30-22, chapter 8:
  - a. Improve the overall quality of Army food service and training to the soldier.
  - b. Provide recognition for excellence in culinary skills.
  - c. Provide an incentive for competitive programs of major Army commands (MACOMS) in food service.
  - d. Recognition is in the form of certificates, medallions, engraved plaques and trophies.
4. Team Display Tables: Competition staff will provide team tables measuring 12' x 12.5.' The maximum table space available for each team is 12' x 12.5,' configured as shown. All team tables will be configured in the described manner. Individual tables will be available upon request for personnel competing on an individual basis.

12' x 12.5'

- a. Teams will provide all table covers and skirting to dress their perspective team tables. Risers for the tables are authorized, but must be provided by the installation and will not exceed 24” in height. 1.5 inch clamps are required for fastening skirts to the tables.
- b. Teams will dress, cover and drape tables at the post field house 0900-1600, Monday 12 March 2007. Teams may place large centerpieces integral to table design in position at this time. Teams may move remaining exhibits into position between 0001 and 0600 hours on 13 March 2007.
- c. Signs identifying installation teams or individuals are allowed on tables only after all judging is final. Awards are placed on the tables after judging is complete.

5. Installation of the Year Competition

- a. The Installation of the Year (IOY) competition is one of the highlights of the Culinary Competition. This is the overall team event. To compete, installations must enter each of the categories listed on the IOY entry form provided with this packet. It must be submitted at the managers’ meeting on 3 March 2007. The winner will be the team with the highest aggregate points in their chosen entries. Results are announced at the awards ceremony on 16 March 2007, in the Lewi Auditorium, Mifflin Hall.
- b. Focus should be on quality food preparation and teamwork to achieve the highest possible score on the required entries. Teams must enter each of the categories below to qualify for the Installation of the Year competition. Teams competing for Installation of the Year may enter a maximum of eight centerpiece exhibits in addition to the categories required for the cold food buffet table. Teams generally take on more work than they can handle. Successful teams execute the minimum amount of work required to a very high standard.
- c. Seventy-five percent (75%) of the categories required for the Installation of the Year competition incorporate food taste and flavor evaluation. Each team must prepare one centerpiece for the table and one centerpiece for the dessert platter. Teams should remain within the Basic Daily Food Allowance for the month of October 2007 when planning menus. A menu cost analysis may be presented in a three ring binders or presentation folder with document protectors.
- d. The total point values for all IOY entries on the cold food buffet table will be used for the IOY entry. Buffet tables will further be awarded trophies for most artistic, best overall table (highest points) and judges favorite. Each entry will receive the appropriate recognition based on the entries score. The competition administrative staff has determined that this format will encourage teams to work together toward the overall goal yet still reward individual achievement. Teams should remember that the total value of the table remains the primary focus for the IOY entry. Teams are encouraged to utilize individual team member strengths to benefit the team to the greatest capacity. TEAM – Together Everyone Achieves More.

e. The following list of categories is required for entry into Installation of the Year:

Category E Buffet must include the following:

- One show platter of meat, poultry, game or fish; (choice of A1,3,4) 40pts
- One show platter of fish and/or shellfish (A2) 40pts

f. Category F1- Hot Food Professional Competition/Senior Army Chef of the Year (IOY): This category is designed to stimulate interest and test the Chef's skill in live cookery and will place considerable emphasis on both menu choice and its execution. The winner will be required to demonstrate a high standard of technical expertise so as to justify the prestigious title of "Senior Army Chef of the Year." This category is judged by ACF accredited judges; ACF medals are awarded at the awards ceremony on 16 March 2007.

(1) This competition is open to all Army competitors except for those who have won it before. Each team can nominate only one competitor to enter irrespective of rank. Each competitor may have an assistant in the grade of E-4 (assistants may not be previous winners of an ACF sponsored category, medal winner or USACAT member) or below who may do sanitation, weigh ingredients for recipes, and basic vegetable prep.

- Upon entering the lab each competitor will draw a number for the market basket that they must plan and produce their menu from. Market baskets may be different, but all will be equally as challenging. Competitors will have 15 minutes to inventory equipment, write a menu, and become familiar with the facility. Each menu must contain four-courses and should consist of a composed salad or appetizer, soup, entrée with starch and vegetable, and a dessert. Restaurant grade ten-inch white dinner plates and restaurant grade dinner soup bowls will be provided for the competition. If special bowls or plates are required the competitor must provide them (safeguarding of these items is the sole responsibility of the competitor).
- A list of pantry, produce, and dairy ingredient items is provided for planning the menu (Please note that competitors may bring prepared stock, un-fortified and no finished sauces to this event. Prepared stocks will NOT be provided by the competition staff). A list of equipment is also provided. Additional equipment needed must be provided by the competitor. Four hours total time is allowed for competitors to assess ingredients, plan menus, and produce the meal. All four portions of the meal must be presented and judged. Ten minutes is allotted for presentation and service of each course.
- Each competitor will be required to demonstrate 5 specific classic cuts of vegetables. Competitors may use their own personal knives. The five cuts will be chosen from those shown in the Professional Chef cook book. All of the selected cuts must be utilized and identified in the menu.

- Judging will be in accordance with the following guidelines:

Kitchen / Floor Evaluation

5 points – Sanitation / Food Handling

5 points – Mise en place/Organization

20 points – Cooking techniques, Proper Execution 5 points – Proper Utilization of Ingredients

5 points – Timing / Work Flow

40 points – Total possible points

Service/Tasting Evaluation

5 points – Serving Methods and Presentation

5 points – Portion Size and Nutritional Balance

10 points – Menu and Ingredient Compatibility

5 points – Creativity and Practicality

35 points – Flavor, Taste, Texture and Doneness

60 points – Total possible points

NOTE: A total of 40 points can be attained in this event. The score of 100 is divided by 2.5 to get a total possible score of 40 points.

- Mystery basket may consist of proteins, produce, dairy, and grocery items. Seasonings will be provided on a common spice rack. Ingredients will be suitable for a 4-course menu. The basket of items will be given to the competitors at the start of the competition by a drawing. Competitors will have 15 minutes to access the ingredients, compose a menu, and present to judges. There may be more than one market basket to draw from.
- Concentrate on professional preparation, skillful execution, food safety, and good hygiene. The goal should be practical food, culinary faultlessness, easily digestible food, free of unnecessary detail and extras. Meats should be carved properly and cleanly. Roast beef, English style, should be just medium (pink). Points will be deducted for vegetables which are not cut or turned uniformly. Portion weight should correspond to the number of courses served and be nutritionally balanced. Additional equipment may be brought into the lab, such as pasta makers, food processors, personal knives, and mandolines.
- Presentation. Main meals should be in proportion to one another. The dishes should be reciprocally complimentary in both content and color. The arrangement of the plates should be practical, neat and pleasant; conducive to everyday serving and not cluttered. This is a 4-course meal for 4 persons. Points will be deducted if fewer portions are served.
- Taste. Flavors should be complementary among the 4 courses. Sufficient seasoning should enhance the typical flavor of the dish and not overpower it.

(2) Competition schedule: 5 March 2007, Times TBD

- Fifteen minutes will be allotted for the competitor to inventory equipment and rations, set up work area and become familiar with the facility.
- Four hours are allowed for planning, preparing and cooking the meal.
- Thirty minutes allotted for meal service. All four portions of each item will be served and judged.

NOTE: 30 minutes after the start of the competition the menu will be presented to the judge. Specific instructions will be given at the Team briefing on the 3 March 2007.

g. Category F2 – Hot Food Student/Junior Army Chef of the Year, (IOY Requirement) - This competition is designed to stimulate interest and test the student level junior chef's skill in live cookery and basic understanding of cooking fundamentals. It is an entry-level competition, and therefore, considerable emphasis will be placed on basic level skills correctly executed. The competition is a three-course meal rather than a four-course. The best student/apprentice level chef in the Army on the day of the hot food competition will be recognized as the Army Junior Chef of the Year at the awards ceremony on 16 March 2007.

(1) All competitors will receive medals based on their level of performance in the competition in accordance with ACF guidelines. This competition is judged by ACF accredited judges.

- Each team may nominate only one Army competitor in the rank of E4 or below. Previous winners of this category may not enter. Each competitor may have one apprentice or assistant in the rank of E-4 or below (assistants may not be previous winners of an ACF sponsored category, medal winner or USACAT member) to wash dishes and weigh ingredients for recipes. Assistant may peel potatoes and vegetables and do basic vegetable chopping. Competitors are evaluated on task delegation for their apprentice.
- Each competitor will be expected to cook and serve a three-course menu. The menu may consist of a choice of a composed salad, appetizer, soup, main entree with starch, vegetable, and sauce, and a dessert from a list of ingredients provided at the team captains meeting on 3 March 2007. It is recommended that student chefs utilize the "Cooking Essentials" (cookbook available through the Culinary Institute of America at 1 800 285-8280) to compile recipes and learn the basic skills required to be successful. Ingredients will be comprised of protein items familiar to the young competitors. They will include items such as whole chicken, whole fish, shrimp, etc. Competitors will be required to perform required tasks, such as concasse tomatoes, minced parsley, and various classic knife cuts of vegetables, all of which must be incorporated into the meal they prepare.

- Judging will be in accordance with the following guidelines:

Kitchen / Floor Evaluation

- 5 points – Sanitation / Food Handling
- 5 points – Mise en place/Organization
- 20 points – Cooking techniques, Proper Execution
- 5 points – Proper Utilization of Ingredients
- 5 points – Timing / Work Flow
- 40 points – Total possible points

Service/Tasting Evaluation

- 5 points – Serving Methods and Presentation
- 5 points – Portion Size and Nutritional Balance
- 10 points – Menu and Ingredient Compatibility
- 5 points – Creativity and Practicality
- 35 points – Flavor, Taste, Texture and Doneness
- 60 points – Total possible points

- Competition schedule: 6 March 2007, times TBD
- Fifteen minutes will be allotted for the competitor to inventory equipment and rations, set up work area and become familiar with the facility.
- Four hours allowed to prepare and cook the meal. Twenty minutes allotted for meal service. All four portions of each item will be served and judged.
- Each competitor will be required to demonstrate 5 specific classic cuts of vegetables. Competitors may use their own personal knives. The five cuts will be chosen from those shown in the Professional Chef cook book. All of the selected cuts must be identified and utilized in the menu.

h. CATEGORY F3 – Field Cooking Competition (IOY): This category has been designed to test the installation's expertise in field cookery and teamwork. It examines how the team utilizes and operates its equipment; plans, prepares, and serves the UGR – A meal; incorporates nutrition initiatives and executes fundamental knife and cooking skills; and the final flavor, presentation, and temperature of the food. Effective 2006 this is an ACF sanctioned event and will adhere to guidelines agreed upon by the competition staff and the ACF competition committee. In this spirit ACF certified judges alongside senior foodservice personnel from Fort Lee, VA will judge this competition. 100% of the score in this competition is on safety, sanitation, food preparation, service and taste. Each team leader should emphasize safety, correct food preparation/techniques and proper service throughout the event.

(1) The team will consist of four members. The team leader can be SFC / E-7 or below. The remaining members must be SSG / E6 and below. Team leader is not permitted to do food preparation and must act as an alternate in the event that another member becomes seriously injured and is unable to complete his/her duties. Only one team per installation is permitted. Only the mobile kitchen trailer equipment may be used. Fifteen minutes are allocated for the team to become familiar with the kitchen and set up equipment (Teams should plan on reporting 15 minutes prior to start time for site in-brief and menu drawing).

- Scenario: Your team is in the 7th day of operations and you have accumulated residual rations from breakfast, lunch, and dinner UGR-A meals. You are encouraged to incorporate residual rations into the field menu to provide the best possible meal to the soldiers. Fifteen minutes is allotted for menu planning. The team is required to prepare and serve a UGR – A menu of 50 portions within a 3 ½ hour time period. Teams will receive a UGR-A menu determined by a drawing the morning of the competition (Menu selections are available in the Operational Ration Guide). Meats will be tempered. Teams are allotted three hours in which to prepare the meal and set the serving line.
- One half hour is allotted for serving the fifty portions. The team leader may check plates as they are finished for final inspection before service. UGR compartment plates will be utilized for the field competition. Teams should prepare soup, coffee and beverages with the meal. All food will be evaluated, including beverages.
- Enhancements such as fruit and salad ingredients and supplements such as milk and bread are available. A small pantry of condiments and ingredients will also be available to enhance the meal. See the attached pantry list for ingredients that may be used to enhance the meal. All enhancements must be listed on a production schedule that is available for judges' review during the competition. Residuals should be incorporated to enhance the meal. All items prepared will be judged for the final score. Additional items and enhancements that are prepared can count against the team if they are sub standard. Thirty minutes is allotted for clean-up and sanitation of the MKT.

- Judging will be in accordance with the following guidelines:

Kitchen / Floor Evaluation, Service, Tasting Evaluation

7.5 points – Sanitation / food handling
 7.5 points – Adherence to food production worksheet, (production schedule)
 5 points – Proper utilization of ingredients and resources, cost consciousness, (energy conservation)
 10 points – Timing of service and follow up, progressive cooking and food replenishment
 10 points – Cooking techniques, skills, and fundamentals

5 points – Serving methods and presentation
 10 points – Teamwork, organization
 5 points - Utilization of equipment
 10 points - safety
 5 points – Menu adjustment, nutrition initiatives, meal enhancement
 25 points – Flavor, taste, texture, temperature, and doneness
100 points – Total possible points

A total of 40 points can be attained in this event by dividing the score of 100 is by 2.5 to get a total possible score of 40 points.

- The field competition is scheduled to be held on 8,9, and 10 March 2007 at the Field Training Branch, Area 42, Building 11541, 40th Street. The uniform for this event is BDUs with headgear. Teams should bring wet weather gear in the event of inclement weather. Media and public may be invited to observe and dine.

i. Category F4 – Nutritional Hot Food Challenge – Team Competition (IOY): This is a two-hour hot food competition where two chefs must prepare and present ten servings of a two-course meal. A 30 minute window will be allowed for service. Historically this has been a difficult competition for the show administrators due to teams not planning or meeting suspenses. Team managers should pay particular attention to new suspense guidelines and possible penalty penalties.

(1) The two-member team must consist of at least one member in the rank of E-4 or below. The procedure of the cook-off is as in category F. However, in this category the chefs execute the meal plan as a team in a competitive working session. The two-course meal plan should follow a pattern that is a culinary work of art, but also helps the consumer obtain the recommended levels of nutrients to meet the nutritional requirements of a Healthy diet.

- Menus, recipes, and a nutritional analysis by the installation dietitian must be submitted when the two member team enters the kitchen for the Nutritional Hot Food Challenge on 14 March 07. The only major equipment available for this competition is a household stove; a refrigerator-freezer; two worktables; electrical outlets; and one table-top mixer. All other equipment necessary for execution of the meal must be brought by the competitors.

NOTE: Teams failure to obtain dieticians memorandum stating the meal plan meets the nutritional guidelines for the competition will be disqualified from the Nutritional Hot Food Challenge.

- Complete entry documents with typed recipes for the two-course meal plan (i.e., appetizer or salad & entrée or entrée & dessert) for a total of ten portions each.
- Nutrition analysis for each course must be reviewed and approved by a dietitian. A “memorandum” written by a dietitian stating the meal plan was evaluated for overall nutritional adequacy and meets the nutritional guidelines required for the competition must be part of the packet. Also, outline which software program was used for the analysis. In the event a dietitian from your installation isn’t available to analyze the packet, submit a memorandum (stating the circumstances) which will accompany the packet to Fort Lee’s Nutritionist CPT Akuley, AFMTD at suzanne.a.akuley@lee.army.mil, 804-734-3370. Packets that have the dietician memorandums do not need to be sent to Fort Lee.
- March is National Nutrition Month. The theme for 2007 is “100% Fad Free”. Key messages for National Nutrition Month ® reinforces the 2005 Dietary Guidelines for Americans and incorporates the new My Pyramid food guidance system.

(2) Criteria for judges consideration:

- Incorporate the following key messages from the National Nutrition Month 2007 campaign (www.eatright.org and the 2005 Dietary Guidelines for Americans (www.usda.gov).
- Choose foods sensibly by looking at the big picture. A single food or meal doesn’t make or break a healthful diet. When consumed in moderation in the appropriate portion size, all foods can fit into a healthful diet.

- Learn how to spot a food fad. Unreasonable or exaggerated claims that eating (or not eating) specific foods, nutrient supplements or combinations of foods may cure disease or offer quick weight loss are key features of fad diets
- Find your balance between food and physical activity. Regular physical activity is important for your overall health and fitness plus it helps control body weight, promotes a feeling of well-being and reduces the risk of chronic diseases.
- Food and nutrition misinformation can have harmful effects on your health and well-being, as well as your wallet. Registered dietitians are uniquely qualified to communicate current and emerging science-based nutrition information and are an instrumental part of developing a diet plan that is unique to your particular needs.

(3) The overall meal plan should contain a maximum of 1000 calories with: approximately 45 - 65% calories from carbohydrates, 20 - 35% of calories from fat (<10% of calories from saturated fat), 10 - 35% calories from protein, no more than 150 mg cholesterol, 1150 mg sodium and 10gm of dietary fiber.

NOTE: Please use attached form. See sample at appendix 1&2 (below)

- Evaluation of the meal plan as a part of a Heart healthy diet on the basis of the nutritional adequacy performed by a dietitian.
- Utilization of a variety of ingredients and culinary preparation techniques to yield optimal nutrition.
- Assessment of culinary creativity and composition to enhance appearance

(4) The team will be required to prepare the meal plan as submitted in the original entry. Of the ten portions, three are for judging, one for critique and photos, and 6 for plated service.

(5) During the competition competitors will be judged on the following areas, but not limited to:

- Mise en place, organization, sanitation
- Professional preparation and work habits
- Professional serving and cooking methods
- Taste, texture, and flavor combinations
- The basic fundamentals of nutritional cooking and methods
- Adherence to submitted menu plan
- Coordination with team partner
- Presentation, proper cooking, proper temperature, nutritional creativity and overall understanding of concept

(6) Each kitchen is to be left neat and clean. The scores will be finalized after inspection of the kitchen area and prior to departure.

(7) No advanced preparation or cooking is allowed. Vegetables may be cleaned and washed, but not cut or shaped in any way. Competitors are allowed to only bring in the whole and raw materials to execute the assignment. No finished sauces are allowed. However, competitors will be allowed to bring in basic stocks (beef, veal, chicken, vegetable or fish) as necessary.

(8) Uniform is chef whites or cook whites with white hat, clean apron, and side towels for this live competition.

(9) Team Manager must indicate two members who will compete in this category on the team entry form. Ensure that all nutrition analysis' and recipes are submitted with entry by 2 February 2007.

(10) Questions or assistance regarding this category should be addressed to:

  - 5 points – Creativity and Practicality
  - 35 points – Flavor, Taste, Texture and Doneness
  - 60 points – Total possible points
- Service/Tasting Evaluation
  - Mystery basket may consist of proteins, produce, dairy, and grocery items. Seasonings will be provided on a common spice rack located in the kitchen area. Ingredients will be suitable for a 4-course menu. The basket of items will be given to the competitors at the start of the competition by a drawing. There may be more than one market basket to draw from.
  - Concentrate on professional preparation, skillful execution, food safety, and good hygiene. The goal should be practical food, culinary faultlessness, easily digestible food, free of unnecessary detail and extras. Meats should be carved properly and cleanly. Roast beef, English style, should be just medium (pink). Points will be deducted for vegetables which are not cut or turned uniformly. Portion weight should correspond to the number of courses served and be nutritionally balanced. Additional equipment may be brought into the kitchen, such as pasta makers, food processors, personal knives, molds, and mandolines.
  - Presentation. Main meals should be in proportion to one another. The dishes should be reciprocally complimentary in both content and color. The arrangement of the plates should be practical, neat and pleasant; conducive to everyday serving and not cluttered. This is a 4-course meal for 10 persons. Points will be deducted if fewer portions are served.
  - Taste. Flavors should be complementary among the 4 courses. Sufficient seasoning should enhance the typical flavor of the dish and not overpower it.

(2) Competition schedule: 7 March 2007 1000-1730

- Fifteen minutes will be allocated for the competitor's in-brief.
- Fifteen minutes will be allotted for the competitor to inventory equipment and rations, set up work area and become familiar with the facility.
- Four hours will be allowed to plan menu, prepare, and cook the meal.

- Thirty minutes will be allotted for meal service. All ten portions of each item will be served and judged.
- Competition dates may be adjusted by the competition staff based on participation and scheduling conflicts.

NOTE: 30 minutes after the start of the competition the menu will be presented to the judge. Specific instructions and time schedule will be given at the Team briefing on the 3 March 2007.

1. Category H - Ice Carving: An exciting category where artists and culinarians can mingle is category H, Ice Carving. There are three different sub-categories depending on the amount of carvers and ice to be carved.

(1) Category H1 - Single block individual free style: one competitor, one block, 3-hour time limit.

(2) Category H2 - Two-competitor-team, three blocks, three hours.

(3) Category H3 - Three-competitor-team, five blocks, three hours.

General Guidelines:

- Exhibition carving officials will place safety as the single most important rule for competitors and spectators. First safety violation may be verbal according to the discretion of the judges; second warning – disqualification of the contestant.
- All competition ice is to be carved on the premises, within specified time limit, by the competitor entering the category only. Exception: In conjunction with a culinary show, the ice may be brought in to be judged under the category D/1, Buffet Artistic Showpiece.
- In exhibition carving, one helper may be used by each contestant. The helper must register with the competitor and sign all waivers. The helper can handle the ice and tools, but may not alter the ice in any manner. No helpers are allowed for the team competitions.
- Display tables for individual free style carvings will have a surface of 48" x 48" and adequate stability and braces to support the weight of the ice.
- A lead judge with a proven background in ice sculpture will supervise the jury. A minimum of three judges with experience in the area of carving will judge employing an open or blind judging system. The decision of the judges is final.
- The head judge is responsible for conducting the carvers' meeting prior to the start. The project officer will participate in the meeting, and introduce judges, officials, and helpers to the contestants.

Platforms for Carving: The platforms are non-skid, exterior-grade plywood ½" x 4' x 8' laid flat across two wooden pallets. Team competition platforms will be large enough to accommodate the number of competitors per team. The surface that the platforms are placed upon will be non-skid and allow for drainage.

Power Supply: The power supply will be adequately grounded and will accommodate several 120 volt chain saws operating simultaneously. The connections for the power supply will be of a nature so that they do not stand in water. Engineering support will be available at the beginning of the contest to ensure a successful start.

Lighting: Lighting will be bright enough to ensure a safe environment for the contestants while providing good visibility for spectators.

Drainage: Competition staff will ensure that there is adequate drainage and personnel available to clean and clear the carving area of any debris ice.

Judges Panel: The judge's panel will consist of a minimum of three judges, experienced ice sculptors, artists, and at least one ACF approved ice carving judge. Judges will be available for competitors' critique after judging.

Judging: Displays are judged in four areas, each worth a possible 10 points:

- Artistic achievement and strength of design.
- Craftsmanship, work involved, detail and precision, strong lines, symmetrical, of even depth, and uniformity.
- Finished appearance, the piece has a finished look, free of cracks, chips, or excess slush.
- Originality and degree of difficulty, unique, of a new design or composition.

Safety Guidelines:

- Clothing – protective in nature.
- Steel toe boots and safety glasses.
- Electrical equipment grounded.
- Gloves – cold weather protection.
- No loose scarves, etc.
- Ear plugs.
- Proper lifting, moving of ice blocks and finished pieces weighing 300-400 lbs.
- Adequate drainage.

Authorized Ice Carving Tools: Ice tongs, hand saws, steam wand, alcohol/propane burners, draw knife, large compass, string, wood ruler, extra bars, large flat chisels with long handle, small flat chisels with long handle, large V-chisels with long handle, small V-chisels with long handle, round inside cut, round outside cut, level carpenters, dividers, 5-prong shaver, ice pick, spare chains – new

Authorized for power tool competition – Chain saws, table with circular saw, dremmel, router, side grinder, die grinder, Alaskan Mill

Show organizer's responsibilities:

- Provide liability waivers for all competitors and assistants.
- Secure necessary materials for set up of carving and display areas.
- Arrange for personnel to emcee the event, talk to the audience; provide official time clock visible to all contestants, proper signage for contestants and their establishment, scoreboard to post final scores of competitors.
- Provide staff and calculators to assist in calculating and averaging scores.

o. Category J: (Part 1 USACAT Tryouts/National Military Chef Championship) Baron H. Galand Culinary Knowledge Bowl – The Culinary Knowledge Bowl is designed to inspire food service professionals to continue in their studies of culinary theory of preparation, food safety, nutrition, and equipment.

(1) Since 1992, teams of students/apprentices, who are junior members of ACF chapters, have faced off in a battle of the brains. This competition is named in honor of past ACF National President Baron H. Galand who championed the junior members and encouraged them to get involved in their profession outside their kitchens.

- A one-hour preliminary culinary examination will take place on 4 March 2007 in Building 4200. Schedule will be posted at the Team Manager's meeting on 3 March 2007. All teams entering the Installation of the Year are required to submit names of a four-member team to participate in this event.
- The exam is multiple choice and will contain questions on sanitation, nutrition, culinary preparation, equipment, terminology, classical cooking, meat identification, and cooking methods.
- Finalists from the exam will participate in the live version of the Culinary Knowledge Bowl on 14 March 2007 at the Field House. This event will take place in public and the winners will be awarded first, second, and third place recognition. Scores from the written exam will be averaged per team for the Installation of the Year score.
- This exam is part 1 of the USACAT tryout. All competitors applying for USACAT consideration will take the examination the same day as the knowledge bowl teams. USACAT applicants that are already a part of the installation knowledge team will have their individual score used in their USACAT assessment.

Team Composition - Each team shall have:

- Four Members E-4 and below who represent the same Military Installation Team
- One team member designated as the Captain.

- One additional member, who will serve as an alternate in the case of a team member's illness or absence for any other reason.
- One Coach/Advisor who will act as the team's administrative liaison.
- Members of the team may be apprentices from the Installation Team

NOTE: The Coach/Advisor shall not participate in the competition, shall not be allowed in the "Green Room", and shall not communicate with the team members during the actual competition. The Coach/Advisor should be either an active or retired ACF member, or preferably a Culinary Educator.

Subject Matter: (Required Texts) All questions are taken from the following texts:

- Culinary Fundamentals: Prentice Hall: ISBN: 0-13-118011-8 website is www.prenhall.com
- Baking Fundamentals: Prentice Hall: ISBN: 0-13-118351-6 website is www.prenhall.com
- Nutrition for Foodservice and Culinary Professionals, Sixth Edition: John Wiley & Sons: ISBN: 0-471-59976-X

Competition: The competition uses a Jeopardy style, five-by-five Matrix Board. The question banks will be modified from those used previously in order to provide equal status to all teams. At the designated time, prior to the competition, all teams will meet for orientation and to draw their starting and rotation positions.

- Because the Baron H. Galand Knowledge Bowl is an educational event, if the correct answer is not given by either team, the moderator will read the correct answer for the entire audience.
- Competition Format
The number of questions used per round is listed under Question Organization. At the Pre-Competition Meeting, the Team Captain will draw for the team's designation letter used for pairing in the rounds.
- Teams will compete two at a time as designate in the Order of Competition. The first two teams will go to the competition area and the other teams will go to the "Green Room" until they are called to go to the competition area. The alternates should accompany the teams to the green room; in this way remaining eligible to fill in during the live competition as needed. If an alternate is asked to join the team, while the competition is in progress, they must remain on the team for the remainder of the game. The Coach/Advisors shall go to the audience, and remain with the audience during the entire game.
- Each competitor on a team will have a buzzer. Any member of the team may hit the buzzer, but the team captain is the only one who may relay the answer to the judges. If a team activates their buzzer before the question is completely read, the Master of Ceremonies will stop reading the question and ask for an answer. If the answer is incorrect, the opposing team will be read the entire question and be given ten seconds to decide if they want to attempt an answer.

- Upon activating the buzzer, the team has a total of twenty seconds to complete the answer.
- The questions are designed for short answers. Be clear with your answers. You will not be asked to repeat your answer or allowed to change your answer once time has been called.
- If the answer given is not clear to the Master of Ceremonies, he or she will ask the judges to make a final decision.
- Judges: Judges will consist of three qualified chefs/chef educators for the Annual Competition and be selected by the Ft Lee Administrative staff.
- Officials: There will be a Master of Ceremonies, who acts as moderator, a Timekeeper, a Scorekeeper, and two escorts who will guide the teams to and from the "Green Room". The escorts should be supplied by the host ACF Chapter, (Ft Lee International Chapter).
- Prizes: Each team competes for Competition Trophies. All finalist participants will receive a Certificate of Participation.
- The Coach/Advisor of each team will receive one education point per event towards initial certification or six continuing education hours towards certification renewal.
- Dress: During the competition all competitors must be dressed in professional chef's attire.
- Question Organization : In the tournament, each of the first two rounds will consist of five categories, with four questions in each round worth 10, 20, 30 or 40 points, respectively. A team which correctly answers the questions will be awarded the appropriate points. If a team answers incorrectly, they will have the appropriate points subtracted from their score. There will be a daily double in each round which will be worth double the amount of points in the square and only the team naming the question, has the opportunity to answer it.
- Each team will draw for position and depending upon the number of teams entered, play against two other teams. Each team will have the opportunity to answer 40 questions to determine who goes to the final round. At the conclusion of two rounds, the two teams with the highest, combined score from the two rounds will go into the final round. If there are any ties, single round tie breaking questions will be asked. (A tie breaking question has no point value). The final round will consist of five questions per each of five categories, and both teams will start with zero. Highest score is the winner.
- The National Championship is a straight round robin tournament - five questions will be asked in each of five categories for three rounds. Both verbal and visual identification questions may be used in the competition.

- To assist the teams, a CD formatted similar to the actual game with sample questions will be provided for each team at the team managers meeting on 3 March 2007. Teams are strongly encouraged to use this tool. Historically the “jeopardy” portion of this event has been the teams weakest and most difficult area of the competition.

p. Category K - Practical and Contemporary Hot Food Cooking (1 entry required for IOY) NOTE: Individual competitors fabricate and prepare a finished product based on the following main course categories. Read the General Rules and Guidelines carefully

NOTE: Competitors are to prepare four portions on all K categories, with 60 minutes to fabricate and cook the menu and five additional minutes for plating.

r. CATEGORY S: STUDENT TEAM SKILLS COMPETITION (IOY): This category is new to the US Army Culinary Competition and is a requirement for teams entering the Installation of the Year Competition. Teams are highly encouraged to read the following rules carefully and ask questions. Teams should also visit the ACF website and download a copy of the student team competition guidelines, this will provide numerous tips to success and hints for a team to use in this competition. This event is intended to allow junior competitors an avenue to compete and encourages team seniors to train and mentor student culinarians. In this spirit, teams are encouraged to utilize their team apprentices.

- This competition is a four person team made up of E-4s and below. Apprentices are allowed to enter this event.
- Teams are required to submit menus, recipes and photographs at the team managers meeting on 3 March 2007. This event will be held in the field house on 15 March 2007 (0700-1600).
- Equipment will be the same as in category F4.
- Additional equipment is the responsibility of the team.
- Competitors are required to bring all ingredients needed for their menu.

- The competition is divided into two sections: Phase One: the practical and contemporary skill-based competition and Phase Two: the practical and contemporary hot food cooking competition, which consists of a four (4) course signature meal of four (4) servings.

Phase One: Practical and Contemporary Skill -Based

- Teams must bring their own products and will be allowed into the kitchen for setup at least 30 minutes before part one begins.
- Each member of the student teams (excluding the alternate) will exhibit knife skills in butchery, the filleting of fish, vegetables, mise en place, and basic culinary organization skills in a two-part demonstration.
- Each team will have 75 minutes to complete the two-part assignment.

Part One:

Each team member is required to know and execute all basic butchery, filet and knife skills. He or she will need to demonstrate the butchery of one chicken and the filleting of one round or flat fish. Chicken is to be cut into two French breasts and separate leg and thigh.

Part Two:

Each member of the Student Team (excluding the alternate, unless substituting) will demonstrate the following:

- 1) Julienne vegetable of choice resulting in one oz finished product 1/8 "x 1 /8" x 2"
- 2) Tournée two vegetables of choice 3/4" diameter, 2: long and seven-sided, flat ended
- 3) Brunoise one vegetable of choice 1 /8"x 1 /8"x 1 /8" 2 oz. by weight
- 4) Small dice two yellow onions.
- 5) Prepare carrot slices and produce one cup of finished product. (Size may be 1/8" or 1/4" but must be consistent.)
- 6) Peel and small dice two vine ripened tomatoes (approx. 5" x 5" or 6" x 6" size). Pulp to be seeded and concassed.
- 7) Finely chop curly parsley to make four (4) tablespoons of finished product.

Note:

- All products must be ready for display at the end of the 75-minute period. Half a point will be deducted for each minute over the 75-minute time period.
- Yield of all products will be evaluated by judges.
- Keep waste for display.
- All products are to be kept in a sanitary manner and all items are to be used for the menu and cooking presentation, including the proteins. (chicken & fish)

Phase Two: Practical and Contemporary Hot-Food Cooking

- Each Student Team will develop and prepare a four-course signature meal for four persons, with appropriate garnishes, using the items from the Phase One testing and other items as needed to complete the menu.
- Three portions of each course will be delivered to the judges, and one complete meal of four courses will be displayed for photographs and critique.
- Teams are expected to bring only their required products, weighed, separated, and clearly marked.
- Peeled vegetables will be allowed.
- No finished sauces are allowed, but appropriate stocks are permitted.
- Teams must use products left from Phase One to enhance their stocks as needed.
- Teams will have 90 minutes to prepare and serve the four courses.
- At 75 minutes into the competition, the 15-minute serving period will have begun. After the 90-minute period has ended, half a point per minute will be deducted for any lateness. At the end of the 90-minute period, each team will be allowed 30 minutes to break down and clean their station, leaving it in the same condition as found. Failure to observe this will result in a point(s) deduction. Teams that run overtime by five minutes must serve their meal (or the remaining part of it) to the judges after every other team has finished serving.
- Note: Menu literacy and written menu composition will be taken into account and adjudicated in the creativity and skill demonstration score.
- A menu must be composed in the following order: Soup or Appetizer; Salad or Salad-Appetizer (when a soup is used as a first course), Entrée and Dessert (no exceptions).
- Teams must show a variety of basic cooking techniques, and a minimum of three, to include sauté, roasting, poaching, grilling or stewing.
- Teams must use the proteins and vegetables from the Skills Phase One part of the competition. Protein weights should be in the 5-6 oz. range for entrees and 3-4 oz. for appetizers.
- Strict adherence must be made to the rules and menu choices. Points will be deducted if not followed.

GENERAL RULES AND GUIDELINES

- Teams must provide six sets of recipes, a list of all ingredients, and a close-up photograph of each course and the four-course meal. These must be presented to the judges in booklet form upon entering the kitchen at the stated competition start time.
- No advanced preparation is allowed other than peeled potatoes, carrots, onions, garlic, shallots, and cut mirepoix. Vegetables and salads may be washed, but not cut or shaped in any form.
- Teams are allowed to bring in only the whole and raw materials in the amounts stated in the recipe to execute the assignment. Leeks may be split for cleaning purposes.
- Appropriate stocks for the meal may be brought in, but neither finished sauces nor clarified broths are allowed.
- Teams will be provided with standard china; any additional china must be provided by the team.
- The competing teams must bring all equipment, knives, and small wares.
- Teams must pre-scale their recipes.
- Basic nutritional balance in recipe development is essential. On each recipe, a breakdown of calories, calories from fat, sodium, and minerals must be indicated. As a guideline, based on overall calories, no more than 30% of daily calories should come from fat. 50-60% of calories should come from carbohydrates and 15-20% of calories should come from protein.

Equipment

- Teams must bring in all equipment that is needed to execute the meal. Teams should only expect the organizer to provide a four to six burner stove, an oven, a full rack cart, tables, garbage receptacle, ice supply, a refrigerator, and a freezer. Processors, blenders, mixers, etc. must be brought if needed. Power outlets will be supplied

t. Judging and Awards

(1) Judging and awards are in accordance with ACF rules and guidelines.

- Presentation and general impression. For dishes which are appetizing, tastefully pleasing, attractive, with no beads of aspic; slices should be neither too large nor too thick; portions should be correctly calculated.
- Composition. Nutritionally well balanced and in keeping with modern tastes, color, textures, and flavor should enhance each other; should be practical, digestible, and light.
- Correct preparation. The classical names should correspond to the original recipes and preparations; correct basic preparation of the food; correctly chosen jellies; application of correct cooking methods.
- Serving. Clean and careful serving with no fuss, simple and practical; slices of carved meat with carved surfaces upward, no leafy garnishing on plates or platters intended to be served warm; no over elaborate garnishing for restaurant platters or dishes; no repetitions in carved or turned vegetables, but rather plate or platter arrangement to allow for practical serving.

(2) Point values:

- Assessment for Categories A, B, C, E,

Presentation, General Impression -- 5 points

Dishes should be appetizing and tastefully pleasing to the eye, should show no beads or uneven aspic, slices should be moderate, portions correctly calculated and easily accessible.

Glazing & Plate or Platter Design -- 5 points

Composition and Harmony of Ingredients -- 10 points

Display must be nutritionally well-balanced and in keeping with modern trends. Taste and colors should enhance each other, display practical craftsmanship, and should be practical, digestible, and light.

Correct Preparation and Craftsmanship -- 15 points

Classical names should correspond to original recipes and methods of preparation.

Preparations must display mastery of basic skills, chosen jellies, and application of cooking methods.

Serving Methods and Portions -- 5 points

Simple and practical, clean and careful serving with no fuss, no over-elaborate or impractical garnishing, plate and platter arrangement that makes for practical serving while maintaining a strong sense of the elegant.

- Assessment for Category D:

Category D entries (showpieces) are supposed to display more creativity than practically but must also conform to certain standards. Showpieces must be made mostly of edible material, except structure; however, other materials are allowed for support. While a competitor must enter either category A, B, or C before he or she may enter category D, showpieces are scored separately and are judged in four areas, each carrying a possible 10 points:

Degree of difficulty - 10 Points

Artistic achievement – 10 Points

Work involved – 10 Points

Originality – 10 Points

- Assessment for Category F, G:

The dynamics of judging category F, hot food competition, are quite different from those when judging the other categories. In a cold food competition, the judging takes place in an empty hall, except for members of the judging panel, a tabulator, the show chair and several runners. The competitors are absent, as are the public and the media.

The assessment for category F is divided into two areas: kitchen/floor evaluation and service/tasting evaluation. Each of these areas are further divided into five specific areas, which are scored individually. The total possible points (100) is divided by 2.5 to yield a medal score on a 40-point scale.

Kitchen/Floor Evaluation - (40 possible points)

- 5 points -- Sanitation/Food Handling
- 5 points -- Mise en place/Organization
- 20 points -- Culinary and Cooking Technique and Proper Execution
- 5 points -- Proper Utilization of Ingredients
- 5 points -- Timing/Work Flow

Service/Tasting Evaluation - (60 possible points)

- 5 points -- Serving Methods and Presentation
- 5 points -- Portion Size and Nutritional Balance
- 10 points -- Menu and Ingredient Compatibility
- 5 points -- Creativity and Practicality
- 35 points -- Flavor, Taste, Texture and Doneness

FLOOR JUDGES EVALUATE:

- Organization. Table is kept clear of nonessentials, for example, a mixer that may not be needed for the next 30 minutes. Working systematically on one job at a time. Using correct cutting motions and the correct knife for the job. Storing of products – an organized refrigerator, rack cart, knife, and equipment storage. Waste storage - is it useable or not? How the useable waste is stored for future uses. The table is free from debris. Floor spills are attended to quickly. The dish area is not being used as a storage dump. An organized withdrawal from the kitchen, leaving it as clean as it was found.
- Sanitation. Cutting boards are scrupulously clean. Knives are sharp. The toolbox/ knife bag is clean and sanitary inside. Sanitizing solution is at the right strength, not over or under-powered, and whether it's being used as a washing solution instead of sanitizing a pre-washed area. Are the competitors using towels correctly, for example, not wiping debris off a table and then wiping a knife or a plate with the same towel. Whether competitors are using their aprons as hand wipes. Products are stored at the correct
- Temperature. Gloves are being used when the last contact with food is occurring, for example, plating up. Areas are kept sanitized, particularly during fish to meat to vegetable or dairy transitions. Frequent hand sanitizing.
- Work flow. Crossover duties show teamwork. Smooth transitions from one job to another. A logical progression of jobs, for example, avoiding chopping herbs or mincing garlic on several occasions. Proper timing of the menu items.
- Cooking techniques and skills. Following classical cooking techniques. The competitor should be using the technique as stated in the recipe, for example, pan frying instead of sautéing or braising with a lid on. Proper technique used to deglaze a pan rather than simply adding wine or a liquid. Mirepoix browned properly, not just heated. Product roasted correctly and basted as needed, not just placed in the oven. Poached items are not being simmered. Correct method followed in preparing a forcemeat. How many different techniques have been displayed.
- Butchery and Boning Skills. Efficient and profitable removal of muscle or fish from a bone. Sinew and/or fat removal and correct tying methods will be evaluated.
- Timing. Menu items should not be held too long. Do meats have the time to rest. Serving within the five-minute window.

TASTING JUDGES EVALUATE:

- Serving methods and presentation. Hot food is hot and cold food is cold (including plates). Food is fresh and colorful, visibly seasoned, presented with some height, easy to eat, and pleasing to the eye. Meat/fish slices are even, straight, and evenly shingled. Items are closely placed together to help maintain temperature and keep the plate from resembling a smiling face.
- Portion size and nutritional balance. Components of the meal are balanced so that the main item is complemented in size/amount by the accompanying garnish(es) and/or sauce. The necessary nutritional standards are being adhered to. The protein weight is within the set limits.
- Ingredient Compatibility. Ingredient colors harmonize. Ingredient amounts are correctly portioned to give a perfect harmonization.
- Have any of the ingredients been duplicated?
- Creativity and Practicality. The dish can be produced with comfort for a party of 40. The dish shows a degree of difficulty and creative flair, rather than something copied and overused. If using an old or classical idea, new, creative ideas have been used to transform the dish.
- Flavor, taste, texture, and doneness. The stated flavor in the menu and recipe are profound. For example, the duck broth tastes like duck. Doneness temperatures are correct. Stated vegetable cuts are correct. The stated cooking techniques have been applied correctly. The textures correspond to what was implied in the recipe. The flavor of the sauce or vinaigrette reflects what the recipe stated and are of the correct consistency. The correct degrees of caramelization have been shown.
- It tastes great.
- Menu composition and progression of courses. The menu has a thread or a theme running throughout; for example, it is a regional, seasonal, or celebration menu. No courses are out of sync with the menu, such as an Asian-type dish inserted into an American-type menu. In the progression of courses, there should be no erratic or over-dominant flavors that disrupt the flow of the theme. The dishes portray a high level of skill and exactness. The number of different skills employed throughout the menu distinguish the caliber of the cook(s).
